

Positive Discipline in Everyday Parenting Facilitator Training

Sponsored by the Alberta Home Visitation Network Association. (AHVNA)

This innovative and empowering approach to child discipline was developed by Joan Durrant Ph.D. (University of Manitoba) for Save the Children Sweden in 2007. It is relevant to parents of all children from infancy to adolescence.

Positive discipline is:

- Non-violent
- Solution-focused
- Respectful
- Based on child development principles

Facilitator Training – Edmonton

Dates: Tuesday, March 17, Wednesday March 18 and Thursday March 19, 2015
(attendance at all three days is required)

Location: Center for Family Literacy- 11642-142 Street, Edmonton (free parking)

Times: 9:00 - 4:00 p.m. each day

Registration fee: $200.00 AHVNA Member $300.00 Non member - Lunch not included

Deadline: Register by March 6, 2015

Note: This program can be delivered to parents in groups or on an individual basis.

Ideally, participants will:

- Have completed a Positive Discipline for Everyday Parenting program
- Work with parents/caregivers as part of their employment position
- Have completed post-secondary education in a related field
- Support the idea of ending physical and emotional punishment of children
- Be knowledgeable about child development and adult learning
- Be skilled and experienced in group facilitation
- Be able to run a Positive Discipline for Everyday parenting (PDEP) group within 6 months of the training.

Registration fee includes:

- Three days of facilitator training by Colleen Dibden, Positive Discipline Regional Trainer
- One copy of the parent's book, facilitators manual and workbook, PowerPoint training slides

Pre-registration is required online at www.ahvna.org – no registrations will be accepted at the door.

Make cheque payable to the Alberta Home Visitation Network Association (or AHVNA) or pay by credit card online at www.ahvna.org

You will receive an email confirmation of your registration with the registration and participant profile form.

Send completed Registration and Participant Profile Form and cheques to:

Alberta Home Visitation Network Association
9321 Jasper Avenue
Edmonton, Alberta T5H 3T7